

Money Matters

A Financial Wellbeing Programme

Powered by Wagestream

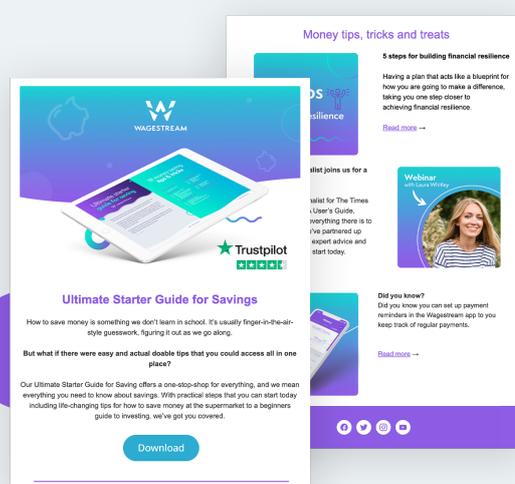

A financial education programme powered by Wagestream, we provide employees with useful financial education content that empowers them to manage their money better. With expert insights and thoughtful content on a range of topics, anything from how to understand a payslip to a bespoke financial personality quiz.

What's included?

MONTHLY NEWSLETTERS AND WEBINARS

Monthly newsletters will include links to handy blog articles, downloadable content, registration links for webinars, interesting industry content like podcasts, and helpful product tips for employees.

We will also be running monthly webinars for which we have two very exciting guests confirmed for October and November.

Dealing With Debt: Four Pillars of Financial Wellness

October 14th

My Frugal Year, otherwise known as Clare Seal is using Instagram to document her journey towards paying off £27k worth of debt. Clare's Instagram account skyrocketed to success because of her very honest and refreshing approach to talking about money and it now boasts a community of over 64,000 followers.

Clare joins us to talk about her financial journey so far and how her 4 pillars of financial wellness has helped her achieve amazing things and stay on track.

National Stress Awareness Day Webinar with Spill

6th November

Spill is an all-in-one workplace mental health support platform. With Spill every employee gets the emotional support they need and want.

Spill join us on the week of National Stress Awareness Day to talk about the psychology of stress and how understanding it can improve financial wellbeing.

COMMUNITY WEEKS

Up next we have 'Community Weeks' which dive into bigger topics with lots of helpful content for employees.

NATIONAL STRESS AWARENESS DAY 6TH NOVEMBER

Here we will be dedicating the whole week to raise awareness and provide education between money and mental health, specifically stress.

We will:

- Run a webinar in partnership with a mental health advocate
 - Provide a downloadable pack for employees, that can be sent via email, which explores the link between money and mental health
 - A newsletter which includes lots of useful content about National Stress Awareness Day
 - We will provide printable, posters, leaflets and booklets that can be used in your staff rooms, canteens or locker rooms
-

LEARN COURSES IN THE APP

Brand new micro-learning experiences in the app where employees can choose flexible learning methods that match their personality type. With content based on needs, behaviours and interactive formats, users can create monthly goals and report on their progress.